

Tennis Coach: Head coach at Tennisclub in Tilburg region - The Netherlands

We are looking for an experienced tennis coach to train both recreational as well as experienced and higher level players, juniors and adults. It offers you a great opportunity to work with a variety of levels and become the head coach of the club. We offer you a competitive salary and support in all matters that involve the move to Holland. We already have Spanish colleagues working here so you will find fellow countrymen.

Our offer

- 24 to 28 hours per week
- Hourly rate: € 37,- ex vat per hour in the first year
- Hourly rate: € 40,- ex vat per hour in the second year (in case of a positive development in the number of hours)
- Costs of transportation to the Netherlands: covered up to € 250,-
- Return flight once a year: covered up to € 200,-
- Extra hours: trial lessons, assistance with youth competition, organizing and planning lessons, meetings with youth commission, assisting activities. For this package we grant a one time € 600,- ex vat per year
- On housing, Chamber of Commerce application and social security issues you will be assisted with

Candidate

- Experience with multiple levels, both juniors and seniors
- Able to really engage with the juniors, fulfill lessons in which pleasure, development and positivity will be key
- In possession of required levels and licenses
- Very good English communication skills
- Availability: March 2026

If you feel triggered by this job opportunity in a new country, please send us your CV in English to info@bobtennis.nl We are looking forward to your response!